

FY24 Corporate Governance Statement

29 August 2024

Bhagwan Marine Limited (Company) was admitted to the ASX on 26 July 2024 and provides this Corporate Governance Statement (Corporate Governance Statement) for the year ended 30 June 2024.

This Corporate Governance Statement discloses the current compliance with the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council in the fourth edition published on 27 February 2019 of its Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (ASX Recommendations). Compliance with the ASX Recommendations is not mandatory. The disclosure below sets out the extent to which the Company does comply with the recommendation, as well as the explanation and commentary provided with the Company's practices that differ from the ASX Recommendations.

The information in this Corporate Governance Statement reflects the Company's compliance from 14 May 2024 (the date that the Company converted from private to Public) to the date of this report. During this period, the Company completed an IPO and was admitted to the official list of the ASX on 26 July 2024.

OUR APPROACH TO GOVERNANCE

The Board is committed to achieving the ASX Recommendations on corporate governance and business conduct, fostering a culture of compliance that values integrity, ethical behaviour, accountability, transparency, and respect for all stakeholders.

The Board continues to build on its foundation of governance to continually improve and ensure it complies with current regulations, market practices and stakeholder expectations.

The Company's corporate governance framework plays a critical role in helping the Board and the business deliver on its strategy and objectives. It provides the structure through which business objectives are set, performance is monitored, and risks are managed.

The disclosure below sets out the extent to which the Company does comply with the ASX Recommendations, as well as the explanation and commentary provided with the Company's practices that differ from the ASX Recommendations.

The Company's corporate governance policies and a copy of this Corporate Governance Statement are available on its website at www.bhagwanmarine.com.

All references to "the Board" below are references to the Board of the Company, all references to "Shareholders" below are references to shareholders of the Company, and references to "the Group" are to the Company and its subsidiaries.

The Board approved this Corporate Governance Statement on 28 August 2024.

Principle and Recommendation	Comply (Yes / No)	Explanation
Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight A listed entity should clearly delineate the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management and regularly review their performance.
Recommendation 1.1 A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter setting out: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management. 	Yes	The Board is responsible to Shareholders for the overall strategy, governance, and performance of the Company. The Board's primary role is to provide leadership and strategic guidance for the Company and provide oversight of management in implementing the Company's strategic objectives and installing a culture that supports the Company's purpose and values. The Board meets regularly to review the Company's performance and progress against its strategy. The Company's Board Charter (Board Charter) is available on the Company's website and sets out the principles for the Board's operation. It outlines the functions directly managed by the Board and those delegated to the Company's management. The Board maintains oversight of matters delegated to management. The Board Charter provides that the Board may establish committees to assist with the discharge of its duties. The Board may delegate consideration of a single or a portfolio of matters to a committee specifically constituted for such relevant purpose.
Recommendation 1.2 A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director. Including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • biographical details, including their relevant qualifications and experience and the skills they bring to the board; • details of any other material directorships currently held by the candidate; 	Yes	The Board Charter provides that, prior to the appointment of a Director or the Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer (MD/CEO), such candidates for those positions shall, amongst other things, be subject to background searches to confirm that the person has the skills and experience to be an effective member of the Board and that they are a suitable person to hold a position of authority at the Company. In addition, the Company conducts those checks prior to the appointments of the Chief Financial Officer, the Company Secretary and any other executive level positions. A report outlining the results of these searches will be provided to the Board as part of the decision-making process. The Company will ensure that Shareholders are provided with all material information relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director in the relevant notice of meeting relating to the election or re-appointment of a particular Director.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> In the case of a candidate standing for election as a director for the first time.
Recommendation 1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	The Board Charter requires new Directors to enter into a written agreement setting out the key terms and conditions of their appointment. The Company confirms that written agreements are in place with all Directors and senior executives setting out the key terms and conditions of the appointment, together with any other documents that the Company considers relevant to the appointment.
Recommendation 1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	The Board is responsible for the appointment of the Company Secretary. The Board has appointed Joint Company Secretaries. The Board Charter provides that the Company Secretary is accountable to the Board through the Chair on all matters related to the proper functioning of the Board.
Recommendation 1.5 A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) the measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity; (ii) the entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and 	Partial	The Company has a Diversity Policy, which is disclosed on the Company's website. The Diversity Policy provides that the Board is responsible for setting and reviewing measurable objectives related to gender diversity in the composition of its Board, senior management, and workforce on an annual basis to identify ways in which the achievement of gender diversity at the Company is measured and in relation to other aspects of the Diversity Policy. The Company has been in a transition over the past 12 months in the lead-up to admission to the Official List of the ASX, and the Board has not yet established measurable objectives to assist the Company in achieving gender diversity and to assess the Company's progress in achieving these objectives but intends to do so in the next reporting period. The Company intends to develop objectives and initiatives regarding diversity (including gender diversity, age diversity, and cultural diversity), focusing on cultivating an inclusive workplace of fairness and equity in accordance with the principles and commitments set out in the Company's Diversity Policy.

(iii) either: (A) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the entity has defined “senior executive” for these purposes); or (B) if the entity is a “relevant employer” under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity’s most recent “Gender Equality Indicators”, as defined in and published under that Act. If the entity was in the S&P/ASX 300 Index at the commencement of the reporting period, the measurable objective for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board should be to have not less than 30% of its directors of each gender within a specified period.		The Diversity Policy provides that the Board has the responsibility to: (a) assess annually the Company’s progress in achieving these objectives; and (b) disclose the objectives and the Company’s progress in achieving the objectives in the Company’s annual report and the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation. At the date of this statement, the Board comprises 25% female gender representation.
Recommendation 1.6 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Yes	The Board Charter provides that the Board will conduct an annual self-evaluation of its performance and the performance of its committees, and an assessment of its performance will be facilitated by an external consultant at least every three years. The assessment of the performance of the Board should include an evaluation of: (a) the Board of Directors; (b) the individual Directors; and (c) the Board committees and their members. Due to the recent changes in the Board’s composition in the lead-up to admission to the Official List of the ASX, the Directors determined that such a review would not provide meaningful results and that the Board would commence scheduled annual evaluations towards the end of the 2025 financial year. The Company will disclose that no performance evaluation has been undertaken in respect of this period.

Principle and Recommendation	Comply (Yes / No)	Explanation
Recommendation 1.7 A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period. 	No	The Board's Remuneration Committee oversees the evaluation of the MD/CEO's performance, and the Board intends to adopt a process for assessing the performance of the MD/CEO and other senior executives annually. In future reporting periods, the Board will disclose at the conclusion of each period whether a performance evaluation of the MD/CEO and senior executives was undertaken during the period.
Principle 2 – Structure the board to be effective and add value The board of a listed entity should be of an appropriate size and collectively have the skills, commitment and knowledge of the entity and the industry in which it operates, to enable it to discharge its duties effectively and to add value.
Recommendation 2.1 The Board of a listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have a nomination committee which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director; and disclose: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or 	No	In preparation for admission to the Official List of the ASX, the Board has reviewed its structure and governance framework and determined that a separate Nomination Committee is not required due to the size of the Board and the nature of the Company's operations. The Board will assume all responsibilities that a Nomination Committee would ordinarily carry out. The Board will periodically review this decision as and when the Board increases in number and its governance matures. The Board will manage the following matters in the absence of a Nomination Committee: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • addressing succession issues within the Board; • the composition of the Board and the appointment, retirement, re-election, and performance of Directors to ensure the Board has the appropriate balance of skills, experience, independence and knowledge of the entity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively; • the appointment of the MD/CEO and performance review of the MD/CEO at least annually; and • induction and development programs for Directors.

Principle and Recommendation		Comply (Yes / No)	Explanation
(b)	if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.
Recommendation 2.2		Yes	The Board is committed to ensuring that its composition continues to include Directors who bring an appropriate mix of skill, experience, and expertise to Board decision-making. The Board also aims to retain a balance between Directors with experience and knowledge of the Company’s business and history and new Directors who bring an external perspective and different insights. The Board has an objective of achieving and maintaining at least 30% female representation on the Board. A Board Skills Matrix has been developed and will be regularly reviewed by the Board to ensure it has the appropriate mix of skills, experience, and diversity to conduct its operations effectively. The Board Charter provides that the Board will have an appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity relevant to the Company’s business and that the Board will regularly assess the independence of all Directors. The following skills and experience are what the Board is currently looking to achieve in its membership. <table><tr><td>Strategy</td><td>Marine Industry and Services</td><td>Maritime Industry</td><td>Financial Acumen</td></tr><tr><td>Finance, Funding and Capital Markets</td><td>Sustainability</td><td>Leadership</td><td>Culture and People</td></tr><tr><td>Health, Safety & Wellbeing</td><td>Listed Company Experience</td><td>Corporate Governance and Risk Management</td><td></td></tr></table>	Strategy	Marine Industry and Services	Maritime Industry	Financial Acumen	Finance, Funding and Capital Markets	Sustainability	Leadership	Culture and People	Health, Safety & Wellbeing	Listed Company Experience	Corporate Governance and Risk Management

Recommendation 2.3 A listed entity should disclose: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director. 	Yes	The Board currently has four Directors, comprising two Non-Executive Directors (Anthony Wooles and Tracey Horton), the Executive Director Finance (Andrew Wackett), and the MD/CEO (Loui Kannikoski). The Board has determined that Tracey Horton is an Independent Non-Executive Director. The Company's prospectus dated 28 June 2024 (Prospectus) discloses that the Board considers that Tracey Horton is free from any business, interest, position, association or any other relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, the independent exercise of her judgement and that she is able to fulfil the role of Independent Non-Executive Director for the purpose of the ASX Recommendations. The Chairman, Anthony Wooles, is currently not considered to be independent. Refer to the explanation for Recommendation 2.5 below. Loui Kannikoski and Andrew Wackett are currently not considered to be independent because they are employed by the Company as executives. Each other director's length of service is disclosed in the Prospectus.
Recommendation 2.4 A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	No	The Board does not currently have a majority of Independent Non-Executive Directors, and as a result, ASX Recommendation 2.4 will not be followed. The Board has determined that due to the nature of the Company's history, development, strategic direction, and business model, it is in the best interests of the Company and its Shareholders to have a higher number of Directors who have a close understanding of the Company's customers and its business. Despite not being comprised of a majority of Independent Non-Executive Directors, the Board is satisfied that it is well-balanced in terms of skills and experience and that no one individual dominates the Board's agenda or discussions. The Board considers that as the Company grows, the Board will continue to review its composition, which may include the appointment of additional Independent Non-Executive Directors in the future.

Principle and Recommendation	Comply (Yes / No)	Explanation
Recommendation 2.5 The chair of the Board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	No	The Chair, Anthony Wooles, is currently not considered to be independent by the Board because he has held the role of a Non-Executive Director for more than 10 years and has held a material business relationship with the Company, including as a major shareholder. Accordingly, ASX Recommendation 2.5 will not be followed. The Directors, other than Anthony Wooles, consider that he is the most appropriate person to act as Chair of the Board given his considerable industry experience, expertise, and deep understanding of the Company's business. Further details on the role of the Chair are set out in the Board Charter.
Recommendation 2.6 A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Yes	New Directors are provided with an induction that includes meeting with the Chair, the MD/CEO, the Chief Financial Officer, and other senior executives to gain valuable insights into relevant operational and corporate matters. This is followed up by additional meetings or information that the new Director may request. The Board Charter provides that the Board organises the induction of new Directors and facilitates ongoing professional development training for Directors. All current Directors undertook an induction process following their appointment to the Board.
Principle 3 – Instil a culture of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly A listed entity should instil and continually reinforce a culture across the organisation of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly.
Recommendation 3.1 A listed entity should articulate and disclose its values.	Yes	The Company is committed to conducting its business with integrity and in an open and accountable manner. The Board believes that lawful, ethical, and responsible business practices are essential to achieving sustainable long-term performance and creating shareholder value. The Board recognises its role in setting the ethical tone and standards of the Company and its responsibility in monitoring and developing a corporate culture. The Company has established policies and a code of conduct that promote ethical and responsible business practices. Copies of the policies and code of conduct are available on the Company's website.

		The Company's values are defined by “STRENGTH” - “The power, vision, integrity and diversity to meet and or exceed Employee and Client expectations.” These values are the guiding principles that define the type of organisation the Company aspires to be and the standards and behaviours that the Company expects of its Directors, executives, and employees. The Company's values are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Safety and Wellbeing - The safety and wellbeing of our employees drives all that Bhagwan Marine does by promoting a safe, motivating, open, optimistic and rewarding work environment. • Team - Our value as a Company is realised by recognising the value of each other; fostering good teamwork is a key element of a successful business; and providing good leadership and pride in achieving and or exceeding Company objectives and targets; • Reliability - Consistently delivering and or exceeding on operational excellence are what set Bhagwan Marine apart from our competitors.
