

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1 Contract

- 1.1 The Supplier must supply the Goods and Services in accordance with this Goods and Services Agreement.
- 1.2 This Goods and Services Agreement comprises:
- (a) the Purchase Order referring to these Terms and Conditions;
 - (b) these Terms and Conditions; and
 - (c) any other document that the Purchase Order expressly states is to apply to the supply of the Goods and Services.
- 1.3 To the extent of any inconsistency between the documents forming part of this Goods and Services Agreement, a document higher in the list in clause 1.2 prevails over each lower document.
- 1.4 This Goods and Services Agreement supersedes all other communications and negotiations between Bhagwan and the Supplier in relation to the Goods and Services and is the entire agreement between the parties.
- 1.5 The terms and conditions of this Goods and Services Agreement apply to the Goods and Services to the exclusion of any terms and conditions contained in any Supplier's quotation, invoice, order acknowledgement, delivery docket, invoice or other document unless agreed in writing with Bhagwan's Purchasing Manager or other person authorised by the Chief Financial Officer.

2 Supply of Goods and Services

- 2.1 The Supplier must supply the Goods to Bhagwan at the Point of Delivery, on the Date for Delivery, during the Delivery Hours, for the Price. The Date for Delivery is of the essence in the Goods and Services Agreement. Unless specified otherwise in the Purchase Order, delivery includes all packing, loading, transport, unloading, unpacking, installing, commissioning and testing. Bhagwan is not required to accept early or late delivery.
- 2.2 The Supplier must commence supplying the Services to Bhagwan on the Services Commencement Date and complete the supply of the Services by the Date for Delivery for the Price.
- 2.3 The Supplier is taken to have carefully examined all documents and other information provided to it by Bhagwan relating to the supply of the Goods and Services and to have fully satisfied itself as to all conditions, risks, contingencies and other circumstances which might affect the supply of the Goods and Services including conditions at the point of performance or delivery, and to have made due allowance for these in the Price.
- 2.4 The Supply of the Goods and Services will not be complete until Bhagwan has accepted the Goods and Services. Bhagwan's acceptance of the Goods and Services entitles the Supplier to issue an invoice pursuant to clause 4.2 and:

- (a) is not evidence or an admission that the Goods and Services have been delivered in accordance with this Goods and Services Agreement; and
- (b) if Bhagwan signs a delivery slip or other acknowledgement, this will constitute acceptance by Bhagwan but, unless agreed in writing referring to this clause 2.4, will not have the effect of incorporating additional terms into, creating new terms with respect to, varying or waiving any part of this Goods and Services Agreement.

- 2.5 The Supplier must notify Bhagwan as soon as practicable after it becomes aware that it will not be able to deliver the Goods on, or perform the Services by, the Date for Delivery.
- 2.6 If the Goods and Services are not delivered by the Date for Delivery, then the Supplier will be in breach of this Goods and Services Agreement and Bhagwan may, without prejudice to its other rights, cancel the whole or part of the order.
- 2.7 The Supplier must deliver all applicable material safety data sheets with the Goods.
- 2.8 The Supplier must:
- (a) supply the Goods and Services in accordance with all laws and Good Industry Practice and with due care, diligence, skill and judgment and to a high standard using materials that are new and of good quality;
 - (b) when attending the Site, ensure that it and all of its Associates comply with any safety, security and general Site rules as may be specified by Bhagwan;
 - (c) work with Bhagwan and its Associates and contractors in an efficient and co-ordinated manner;
 - (d) use suitably qualified and experienced personnel;
 - (e) use all reasonable endeavours to overcome any delays (howsoever caused) in carrying out the supply of the Goods and Services; and
 - (f) ensure that it (and its Associates) minimise interference as far as reasonably practicable with the activities of Bhagwan any anyone else who uses or visits the Site.
- 2.9 The Supplier must keep the Site clean and tidy and regularly remove rubbish and surplus material.
- 2.10 At all times while at the Site, the Supplier must (and must ensure that its Associates) comply with all reasonable directions given by Bhagwan or any of Bhagwan's Associates.
- 2.11 The Supplier must not (and must ensure that its Associates do not) cause any pollution or contamination at the Site or any surrounding areas.
- 2.12 The Supplier must not, in the course of carrying out the supply of the Goods and Services cause any damage to anything on the Site (other than as expressly required by this Services Agreement) or cause injury or death to any person on the Site.

- 2.13 If the Supplier causes any Site damage, then they must report it immediately to the relevant Bhagwan representative.

3 Quality assurance

- 3.1 The Supplier must ensure that the Goods are manufactured or procured, and the Services are performed, in accordance with any specific quality assurance requirements set out in the Purchase Order. Where none are specified, the Goods and Services must comply with the best standards applicable to goods and services of that type.
- 3.2 The Supplier must test the Goods at its own cost to ensure compliance with this Goods and Services Agreement.

4 Price and payment

- 4.1 Unless otherwise specified in the Purchase Order, the Price is fixed and will not be subject to rise and fall or any other adjustment.
- 4.2 Subject to clause 5, if the SOPA Act does not apply to supply of Goods or Services under this Goods and Services Agreement, then the Supplier may deliver to Bhagwan an invoice for Goods and Services accepted under this Goods and Services Agreement. Bhagwan must pay the Supplier the amount determined by Bhagwan as the appropriate proportion (having regard to the provisions of this Goods and Services Agreement and the proportion of the Goods and Services supplied) of the Price for the Goods and Services within 30 days of the end of month in which Bhagwan receives an invoice that complies with clause 4.3.
- 4.3 Invoices must:
- (a) be in the form of a tax invoice;
 - (b) include a valid Bhagwan Purchase Order number;
 - (c) include an adequate description of the Goods and Services to which it relates;
 - (d) state the full details of the Supplier, including address and ABN;
 - (e) set out the amount of GST (if any) payable; and
 - (f) be accompanied by all other documentation and material required by this Goods and Services Agreement or under any law.
- 4.4 The Price includes all taxes, levies and fees (including goods and services tax) which are payable in relation to the supply and delivery of the Goods and Services. The Supplier must pay such taxes, levies and fees.
- 4.5 The Price will not be varied for any reason except where expressly agreed in writing, signed by an authorised representative of Bhagwan.
- 4.6 Bhagwan may deduct from any amount owing to the Supplier under this Goods and Services Agreement, including any part payment of the Price, any amount which Bhagwan asserts is or may become payable by the Supplier to Bhagwan.
- 4.7 All payments will be on account only and will not be an admission that the Goods and Services comply with this Goods and Services Agreement.
- 4.8 Bhagwan does not accept cash on delivery terms.

If SOPA Act applies

- 5.1 If the SOPA Act applies to the supply of Goods or Services under this Goods and Services Agreement then the following terms of this clause 5 apply to payments on account of the Price instead of clause 4.2.
- 5.2 The Supplier may submit Payment Claims at the times stipulated in the Purchase Order. If no times are stipulated in the Purchase Order, the Supplier may submit Payment Claims at the end of each month (Designated Claim Date).
- 5.3 Any early Payment Claim is deemed to have been made on the Designated Claim Date.
- 5.4 Each Payment Claim must be given in writing to Bhagwan and must include details of:
- (a) the amount of the Price claimed; and
 - (b) a detailed breakdown of the Services in relation to which the Payment Claim applies.
- 5.5 Following the submission of a Payment Claim to Bhagwan, the Supplier must, within 5 Business Days of a request, provide Bhagwan with any information concerning the Payment Claim requested by Bhagwan (acting reasonably).
- 5.6 Bhagwan must, within 10 Business Days of receipt of a Payment Claim, assess the claim and issue the Supplier a Payment Schedule evidencing Bhagwan's opinion of the moneys due to the Supplier or Bhagwan, as the case may be. If the amount is more or less than the amount claimed by the Supplier, the Payment Schedule must set out the reasons for the difference.
- 5.7 Within 2 Business Days of receipt of a Payment Schedule, the Supplier must provide Bhagwan with a tax invoice for the scheduled amount. If the Supplier does not provide a tax invoice within the specified time, the Supplier agrees that Bhagwan can issue a recipient created tax invoice for that scheduled amount.
- 5.8 Within 10 Business Days of receipt by Bhagwan of a valid Payment Claim, Bhagwan or the Supplier, as the case may be, must pay:
- (a) the scheduled amount, if Bhagwan has issued a Payment Schedule with respect to the Payment Claim; or
 - (b) the amount of the Payment Claim, if Bhagwan has not issued a Payment Schedule.
- 5.9 Neither a Payment Schedule nor payment of money shall be evidence that the relevant Services have been carried out satisfactorily. Payment is on account only.
- ### 6 Risk and Title
- 6.1 Property and title in Goods or Deliverables will pass to Bhagwan on the first to occur of payment of any part of the Price for the Goods or Deliverables and delivery to the Point of Delivery.
- 6.2 Risk in the Goods and Deliverables will pass to Bhagwan on delivery of those Goods or Deliverables to the Point of Delivery.
- 6.3 The Supplier must insure the Goods against all risks of loss, damage and depreciation for the full replacement value until delivery of the Goods to the Point of Delivery.

7 Insurance

7.1 The Supplier must affect and maintain, during any period it is supplying the Goods and Services, the following insurance policies with reputable insurers:

- (a) workers' compensation to the extent required at law;
- (b) public and product liability insurance to an amount not less than the amount identified in the Purchase Order (and if nothing is stated, $20,000,000);
- (c) goods in transit insurance for the full replacement value of all Goods that are transported; and
- (d) where the Supplier is providing professional services, professional indemnity insurance to an amount not less than the amount identified in the Purchase Order (and if nothing stated, $5,000,000 for any one claim and $20,000,000 in the aggregate during any 12-month period of insurance).

7.2 If Bhagwan requests, the Supplier must provide certificates of currency for the policies effected under clauses 6.3 and 7.1 as soon as practicable and within 7 days in every case.

7.3 If Bhagwan requests, the Supplier must promptly make and pursue a claim under its insurance policies where:

- (a) liability, loss or damage has occurred and is covered under any of the Supplier's insurance policies (Loss or Damage);
- (b) there are reasonable prospects of the claim succeeding; and
- (c) some or all of the proceeds from a successful claim could be applied towards any Loss or Damage,
- (d) however, this clause does not apply in circumstances where the Supplier is ready, willing and able to pay for the Loss or Damage on its own account.

7.4 The insurances referred to in this Goods and Services Agreement are primary and not secondary to the indemnities in this Goods and Services Agreement and any insurance carried by Bhagwan.

8 Warranties

8.1 The Supplier warrants that:

- (a) the Goods and Services will comply with this Goods and Services Agreement;
- (b) the Goods will correspond with any samples provided to Bhagwan by the Supplier;
- (c) the Supplier will be the legal and beneficial owner of the Goods immediately prior to delivery;
- (d) at delivery, the Goods will, unless otherwise specified in the Purchase Order, be new and in good order and condition;
- (e) it will supply the Services diligently, faithfully and conscientiously;
- (f) it will supply the Services with the same or higher level of care and skill as would reasonably be expected of a person qualified and experienced in the supply of the same or similar services;
- (g) the Goods and Service will comply precisely with the description in this Goods and Services Agreement;

- (h) the Goods will comply with any relevant patterns or specifications;
- (i) the Goods will be of good and merchantable quality;
- (j) the Goods and Services will be fit for the purpose made known to the Supplier by Bhagwan or, if none was made known to the Supplier, fit for the purpose for which goods and services of that kind are ordinarily used;
- (k) the Goods and Services will comply with any other warranties and/or guarantees contained in the Purchase Order (or, if none specified, ordinarily supplied by the Supplier and, in respect of the Goods, the manufacturer of the Goods);
- (l) the Goods and Services comply with all applicable Australian standards;
- (m) the Goods and Services comply with the provisions of any legislation applicable to them; title in the Goods and Deliverables passes to Bhagwan free from all charges, liens and encumbrances;
- (n) it has the necessary skills, resources and experience to successfully supply the Goods and Services in accordance with this Goods and Services Agreement; and
- (o) it has all intellectual property rights (including any patents, trademarks and copyright) necessary to supply the Goods, Services and Deliverables in accordance with this Goods and Services Agreement and indemnifies Bhagwan against any loss, cost, damage or expense incurred by Bhagwan as a consequence of any claim by a third party that it has a right to any intellectual property right in the Goods, Services or Deliverables.

8.2 The warranties in clause 8.1 are in addition to any warranties or guarantees set out in the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) and any other relevant legislation which are deemed to apply to the Goods and Services as if Bhagwan were the buyer or the consumer (as applicable) for the purpose of those warranties or guarantees.

8.3 The Supplier indemnifies Bhagwan against any action, liability, costs, damages or expenses suffered or incurred by Bhagwan as a consequence of any breach of any of the warranties in clause 8.1.

9 Defective Goods and Services

9.1 If within a reasonable time of delivery, it is apparent to Bhagwan that the Goods or any part of the Goods are not in accordance with this Goods and Services Agreement, Bhagwan may return those Goods to the Supplier.

9.2 If Bhagwan exercises its rights under clause 9.1, the Supplier must pay Bhagwan:

- (a) any amounts paid by Bhagwan for the Goods returned; and
- (b) any costs incurred or losses suffered by Bhagwan in connection with the delivery or return of those Goods.

9.3 If, at any time, (whether or not a reasonable time has passed for inspection after delivery of the Goods) Bhagwan discovers that the Goods or Services do not comply with any warranty given under clause 8.1 or are otherwise not in accordance with this Goods and Services Agreement, Bhagwan may (without limiting any other right available to it):

- (a) rectify the Goods or Services or have the Goods or Services rectified and the cost, loss, damage and expense suffered or incurred by Bhagwan will be a debt due from the Supplier to Bhagwan; or
- (b) deliver to the Supplier a notice under clause 9.4.

9.4 The Supplier must, if Bhagwan so requires by notice in writing, at the cost of the Supplier and within the timeframes Bhagwan (acting reasonably) specifies:

- (a) in respect of Goods, either:
 - (i) remove some or all of the Goods, rectify the defects in them and return them to Bhagwan; or
 - (ii) replace some or all of the Goods; and
- (b) in respect of Services, either:
 - (i) rectify some or all of the Services; or
 - (ii) resupply some or all of the Services.

10 Confidentiality

Each party must keep confidential, and not use or disclose, any of the other party's Confidential Information, except:

- (a) to the extent necessary for the performance of their obligations under this Goods and Services Agreement;
- (b) that a party may disclose Confidential Information to its legal and other advisers who are under a duty of confidence; and
- (c) that a party may disclose Confidential Information if required by law (including any order of a court of competent jurisdiction), the rules of any stock exchange or statutory duty.

11 Drawings and Tools

11.1 All tools, patterns, materials, drawings, specifications and other data provided by Bhagwan in connection with this Goods and Services Agreement:

- (a) remain the property of Bhagwan (except that the Supplier is responsible for making good any damage done to them while they are in the possession of the Supplier);
- (b) must be used solely for the purpose of this Goods and Services Agreement;
- (c) must not be passed to or divulged to any third party except with Bhagwan's prior written consent; and
- (d) must be returned by the Supplier to Bhagwan on completion of this Goods and Services Agreement.

12 Termination

12.1 In addition to the rights under this Goods and Services Agreement, the parties have the rights of termination available to them at statute and at common law.

12.2 Bhagwan may suspend all of part of the supply of the Goods or Services at any time for any period of time by notice in writing to the Supplier. The Supplier must comply with the notice and recommence supply when notified by Bhagwan. The Supplier will not be entitled to any additional payment arising as a result of the suspension.

12.3 Bhagwan may terminate this Goods and Services Agreement at any time by giving notice in writing to the Supplier. Subject to any rights Bhagwan may have of set off or deduction, on termination Bhagwan's only obligation will be to pay the Supplier for Goods and Services which have been supplied in accordance with this Goods and Services Agreement prior to the date of termination.

13 Force Majeure

13.1 Neither party (Affected Party) will be liable to the other party for any default or delay in the performance of any of its obligations under this Goods and Services Agreement (other than an obligation to pay money) to the extent that the default or delay is due to a Force Majeure Event.

13.2 An Affected Party must give the other party prompt notice in writing of:

- (a) the event of the Force Majeure Event;
- (b) the anticipated effect on the ability of the Affected Party to perform its obligations under this Goods and Services Agreement including the probable extent to which it will be unable to perform, or be delayed in performing those obligations, so far as is known; and
- (c) the likely duration of that effect estimated as a whole number of days.

13.3 An Affected Party will be relieved of its relevant obligations under this Goods and Services Agreement (other than an obligation to pay money), so far as those obligations are affected by the Force Majeure Event, for the time necessary to remedy the effect of that event.

13.4 An Affected Party will, as soon as possible take or cause to be taken all necessary and reasonable steps to ameliorate and remedy the effects of the Force Majeure Event and resume its performance under this Goods and Services Agreement and must use all reasonable efforts to minimise any loss to the other party. However, the settlement of any strike or labour dispute which constitutes a Force Majeure Event will be entirely within the discretion of the Affected Party and that party may refrain from settling the strike or labour dispute or may settle it at the time and on the terms as it considers to be in its best interests.

13.5 If the period of delay or non-performance affects all or substantially all of the Affected Party's obligations and continues for 14 consecutive days or more, the other party may terminate this Goods and Services Agreement by giving written notice to the Affected Party (provided that a party may not terminate this Goods and Services Agreement under this clause 13.5 if the Affected Party has recommenced performance of the affected obligations in full prior to giving notice of the termination).

14 Business Integrity

14.1 Each party must not, and must procure that its Associates and any other person acting for or on its behalf does not:

- (a) give anything of value (which is not properly due)

- to the other party or its Associates that is contrary to fair dealing; or
- (b) provide or offer a benefit (which is not properly due) to a public official (within or outside Australia) in order to retain or obtain an improper advantage.

14.2 The Supplier must, and must procure that its Associates:

- (a) comply with all applicable legislation in relation to Modern Slavery;
- (b) take reasonable steps to ensure that there is no Modern Slavery in its supply chain; and
- (c) notify Bhagwan as soon as it becomes aware of any actual or suspected Modern Slavery in its supply chain that has a connection to this Goods and Services Agreement.

14.3 The Supplier must implement processes and procedures designed to ensure compliance with this clause 14 including complying with Bhagwan's Supplier Code of Conduct.

14.4 The Supplier must maintain records in a reasonable level of detail concerning the steps it has taken to comply with this clause 14, and, upon request from Bhagwan, make these records available to Bhagwan together with such other information as it requests in order for Bhagwan to assess the Supplier's compliance with this clause 14 and in order for Bhagwan to comply with any relevant laws.

14.5 If required by Bhagwan, from time to time, the Supplier must procure that an authorised signatory (which must be, where the Supplier is a company, one of its directors) signs a statutory declaration confirming compliance with this clause 14.

14.6 The Supplier warrant that it, and its Associates, have not and will not undertake any obligation which may interfere or conflict with the proper performance of the Supplier's obligations under this Goods and Services Agreement

14.7 In the event that the Supplier does not remedy, or provide an acceptable plan to remedy, any breach of this clause 14 within the timeframe nominated by Bhagwan, Bhagwan reserves the right to terminate this Goods and Services Agreement immediately by written notice to the Supplier.

15 Privacy and Cyber Security

15.1 The Supplier warrants that it will comply with all applicable laws relating to the Processing of Personal Data collected by, or disclosed to, it pursuant to or in connection with this Goods and Services Agreement.

15.2 The Supplier must immediately notify Bhagwan as soon as it becomes aware of any actual or suspected cyber security or data security breach which may result in any unauthorised access to or disclosure of Personal Data referred to in clause 15.1 (Data Incident).

15.3 The Supplier must ensure that it implements and maintains systems, processes and procedures in accordance with Good Industry Practice to prevent a Data Incident from occurring.

16 Definitions and miscellaneous

- (c) a person includes a partnership, joint venture, unincorporated association, corporation and a government or statutory body or authority;
- (d) any legislation includes subordinate legislation under it and includes that legislation and subordinate legislation as modified or replaced;

- (e) an obligation includes a warranty or representation and a reference to a failure to comply with an obligation includes a breach of warranty or representation; and
- (f) 'includes' in any form is not a word of limitation.

- 16.3 Bhagwan's remedies under this Goods and Services Agreement are without prejudice to remedies at common law or under statute.
- 16.4 This Goods and Services Agreement is not to be construed to the disadvantage of a party because that party was responsible for its preparation.
- 16.5 All of the provisions of Part 1F of the Civil Liability Act 2002 (WA) are expressly excluded and do not apply to anything arising out of this Goods and Services Agreement.
- 16.6 The Supplier must maintain proper business, accounting and financial records and any other records Bhagwan reasonably requires. Bhagwan may, from time to time, request copies of the Supplier's records relating to the Supplier's performance of, or compliance or non-compliance with, this Goods and Services Agreement. The Supplier must provide complete and accurate copies of the relevant records within 7 days of Bhagwan's request.
- 16.7 The Supplier must cooperate with Bhagwan and provide any information relating to the Goods and Services that Bhagwan reasonably requests or that Bhagwan requires in order to verify the Supplier's compliance with any of its obligations under this Goods and Services Agreement (Requested Information). The Supplier must provide any Requested Information to Bhagwan as soon as reasonably practicable.
- 16.8 No waiver by either party of a breach of this Goods and Services Agreement constitutes a waiver for any subsequent or continuing breach by the Supplier.
- 16.9 This Goods and Services Agreement is governed by the laws of Western Australia and the parties submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of Western Australia and any courts which have jurisdiction to hear appeals from any of those courts.
- 16.10 If any of the provisions of this Goods and Services Agreement are held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or otherwise unenforceable that provision may be severed from the Goods and Services Agreement and the remainder of this Goods and Services Agreement will continue to be effective and valid despite the severance.
- 16.11 The Supplier must not assign, or deal with its interest under this Goods and Services Agreement. Any purported assignment or dealing in breach of this clause is invalid, unenforceable and otherwise void and does not bind Bhagwan.
- 16.12 The Supplier is an independent contractor and nothing in this Goods and Services Agreement creates any agency, joint venture, partnership or employer and employee relationship between the parties.
